

Lead You To The Cross

This is my story
This is my song
My passion and purpose
The mission I'm on
The heart of the matter
When it's all said and done
I want to lead you to the cross

I'm not the water
I'm not the bread
But I know the place
Where your soul is fed
So hungry and thirsty,
Come and be blessed
I want to lead you to the cross

I will be all things to all men
Just like you, Lord, a sinner's friend
That by all means I might save some
I'll be a candle, a stepping stone
A holy compass to guide you home
There's no higher call, whatever the cost
I want to lead you to the cross

I will go with you
Here is my hand
Whatever your burden
Wherever you've been
We're all lost and lonely
In a foreign land
I want to lead you to the cross
